True apples to apples bids

True apples to apples bids means every bidder is equally qualified and bidding on the exact same scope of work.

There is no doubt that true apples to apples bids is the very best way to hire a contractor. Each one being equally qualified, and capable of doing the work. Each one able to do a job right and adhere to our strict quality standards. Each one bidding the exact same scope of work and using the same materials.

We are always taking steps to make sure that all our bidders are bidding true apples to apples, and watching out for common bidding tricks, Such as bidding low with the intention of issuing change orders later.

Our bidding process is fair and equal, which means you get good bidders and good bids. That you can choose from with confidence.
